SCUBA Review Refresher Course

Been out of the water for awhile? Our PADI Scuba Review Refresher Course will get you back on track! Typically you'll spend a few hours in the pool with a certified PADI Divemaster, Assistant Instructor, or Instructor reviewing Open Water skills, or join an ongoing Open Water class *, your choice.

In addition, you'll go over your "Scuba Tune-Up" workbook and brush up on the Recreational Dive Planner or any other questions you might have. Pool & Classroom work only no Open Water included. Student provides all personal dive equipment, Tanks, Regulators, BC's provided if needed for pool use.

* For those who haven't been diving in more than eight (8) years, please see the note below.

More than eight (8) years since last diving?

If you've not been diving in more than eight (8) years, Sea Sports Scuba requires you join an Open water class. The cost is one half the prevailing rate for that Open Water class. No open water sessions are included in this type of Scuba Review and candidate must purchase and utilize the standard class crew pack and DVD. Passing this type of Scuba Review, means the ability to perform all skills to standard open water standards.
